Section 3: Reason for Distribution

This information is required for IRS reporting purposes. In most situations, E*TRADE Advisor Services is required to issue a Form 1099-R for distributions from your IRA. Depending on the nature of the distribution, the distribution may or may not be taxable. *Note: If no selection is made, E*TRADE Advisor Services will default to either "normal" or "premature" distribution based on your age. For additional information, consult your tax advisor or the IRS.*

Select one of the following distribution reasons.

- Normal (age 59½ or older) Also used for Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) or if you intend to rollover the distribution to another retirement account within 60 days.
- Premature (under age 59½; may or may not be subject to 10% early withdrawal penalty) Note: For additional information, consult your tax advisor or the IRS.
- Substantially Equal Periodic Payment (SEPP) Use if the distribution is part of a series of a SEPP program.
Important: Any contributions or distributions other than the SEPP program distributions will be considered a modification of the SEPP program and could be cause for exemption disqualification by the IRS.
- Disability (under age 59½; not subject to 10% early withdrawal penalty) Under Internal Revenue Code an individual is deemed to be disabled if "he is unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or to be of long-continued and indefinite duration." Note: The Social Security definition of disability does not apply here. Proof of disability may be required by the IRS.
- Divorce (under age 59½, not subject to 10% early withdrawal penalty) Use this method to move all or a portion of your IRA to a former spouse under a divorce decree. Note: Assets from a Roth IRA can only be moved to another Roth IRA.
Important: A divorce transfer requires your former spouse to complete their personal information and sign in Section 9, in addition to your signature in Section 8. *Note: All information and required signatures must be submitted on one form. Do not send a copy of a divorce decree to E*TRADE Advisor Services.*
- Direct rollover to a qualified retirement plan. This method moves cash to a qualified retirement plan. *Note: If the receiving account is not an existing account, attach the appropriate E*TRADE Advisor Services account application.*
Important: For direct rollover to another custodian, cash only transactions permitted.
- Early SIMPLE IRA distribution (under age 59½; first contribution was less than two years ago; subject to 25% penalty tax) Use this method if you are under 59½, your first contribution was less than two years ago, and none of the exceptions allowed by the IRS are known to apply. You may be subject to a 25% penalty tax. Note: The two-year period begins on the day contributions were first deposited into your SIMPLE IRA. For additional information regarding exceptions, refer to your tax advisor or the IRS.
Important: Do not choose this distribution reason if the first contribution went into your SIMPLE IRA more than two years ago. Select Premature Distribution instead if you are younger than 59½ and the SIMPLE has been in existence for more than 2 years.
- Recharacterization This method changes your IRA contribution designation and moves either all or a portion of an original contribution (in your original IRA,) adjusted for earnings or losses, to another IRA type (your second IRA.) Use this form to:
 - Recharacterize any conversion contributions you made to a Roth IRA back to the original Traditional IRA; or
 - Recharacterize any annual contributions you made to a Roth IRA to be an annual Traditional IRA contribution; or

IRA DISTRIBUTION REQUEST

Institutional Advisor Services

- Recharacterize any annual contributions you made to a Traditional IRA to be an annual Roth IRA contribution.

If your original IRA or your second IRA is at another custodian, please be advised that you must first authorize a recharacterization to an account at E*TRADE Advisor Services. You may then obtain a transfer form from the new custodian to authorize a trustee to trustee transfer between like account types. E*TRADE Advisor Services will not process and other custodians will not accept mid-air recharacterizations.

- Return of excess contribution plus earnings This method withdraws funds prior to the tax-filing deadline plus extensions for the year for which the excess contribution was made. Note: If the excess contribution is being removed after the tax-filing deadline plus extensions, depending on your age, the distribution is either a Normal Distribution or Premature Distribution. Check the appropriate box and complete Gross Cash Amount in Section 4B.
- Conversion to a Roth IRA This method moves funds from a Traditional, SEP, or SIMPLE to a Roth IRA. By choosing this option, you are certifying that the conversion meets the requirement under law for a qualifying conversion contribution and that you understand the tax consequences of the transaction. If the Roth IRA is at another custodian, please be advised that you must first convert to a Roth IRA at E*TRADE Advisor Services. You may then obtain a transfer form from the new custodian to authorize a trustee to trustee transfer between like account types. E*TRADE Advisor Services will not process and other custodians will not accept mid-air conversions. *Note: If you are 70½ or older, your RMD must be satisfied prior to completing a conversion.
