General Instructions

Use these instructions to complete the Advisor Authorization for Distributions form.

Purpose of this form: This form is required to authorize TCA to accept certain distribution instructions submitted by your Investment Advisor on your behalf without requiring your signature for a specified TCA account. Note: To provide instructions for multiple accounts, use one form per account.

Important: The information provided on this form supersedes and replaces all existing authorizations for the account listed in Section 2. If you would like to change authorizations, provide a complete list of authorizations for your account, not just additions or deletions.

All fields are required unless noted. The only exceptions are if a section or entry is listed as 'if applicable'.

You must complete all required fields and provide all required additional forms and documentation to expedite processing and to avoid requests for additional information.

Print or type all entries. Print clearly in all CAPITAL LETTERS to complete this application. To type entries, a fillable PDF of this form can be found online at www.trustamerica.com/advisor-forms.

Important Distribution Information

Due to the potential tax implications of IRA distributions and the unique rules associated with ACH distributions, TCA cannot accept IRA distribution or ACH distribution instructions from your Investment Advisor without your authorization.

Client signature always required. There are certain types of distribution instructions that cannot be pre-authorized with this form. An appropriate distribution request form with your signature will always be required for the following instruction requests:

- Check withdrawal to an address different than the account's address of record
- Check or wire withdrawal representing a change of ownership
- Distributions for a death or divorce
- IRA distributions for a disability
- IRA account transfers, rollovers, or in-kind distributions
- Roth conversions
- IRA recharacterizations
- Large value distributions of $100,000.00 or more
- Return of Excess contributions
- UTMA/UGMA distributions

No client signature required. For non-retirement accounts, instructions for check or wire distributions and for systematic check distributions not representing a change of ownership are accepted from your Investment Advisor without your signature.

Federal and state withholding. When your Investment Advisor submits an IRA distribution request on your behalf, they may specify the percent of federal and state withholding or elect not to withhold tax. If they do not make a specific tax election, TCA will apply a federal withholding of 10% and no state tax.

Section 1: Request Type

Check the appropriate box to indicate the type of action you want to take with this application.

Section 2: Account Owner

Enter the account owner information for this account. Note: Enter your name exactly as it appears on your TCA account.

Section 3: Investment Advisor

Enter the name of your Investment Advisor's firm. This form will authorize this firm to issue distribution instructions selected in Section 4 and 5, on your behalf.

Section 4: Distributions Authorizations

Complete A. the all authorizations box or Section B for an IRA or C for a non-retirement account to authorize your Investment Advisor to submit certain distribution instructions on your behalf without your signature for the account designated in Section 2. Note: Do not complete this section if you have elected to remove all authorizations.

Definitions:

Systematic Distributions are periodic, recurring distributions from an account of a fixed amount of money sent via check or ACH. For example, a $1,000 distribution set up to reoccur on the fifth of each month.

Establish Systematic Check Distribution authorization allows your Investment Advisor to establish systematic IRA check distributions to your address of record.

Modify Systematic Check Distribution authorization allows your Investment Advisor to change distribution amounts, frequency, and dates, as well as terminate existing systematic IRA check distributions.

Establish Systematic ACH Distribution authorization allows your Investment Advisor to establish systematic ACH distributions using one of your account's ACH banks of record.

Modify Systematic ACH Distribution authorization allows your Investment Advisor to change distribution amounts, frequency, and dates, as well as terminate existing systematic ACH distributions.

Section 5: Banks of Record, if applicable

Your signature will always be required to establish or change your banks of record. Each account may have up to two ACH banks of record plus systematic ACH distribution banks of record for each systematic ACH distribution, and one wire bank of record.

Note: To add additional banks of record for use with systematic ACH distributions only, use a systematic contribution/distribution request form. If the bank account type is not selected, TCA will default to checking account.

A. ACH Banks of Record

Complete this section to establish or replace up to two ACH banks of record to be used for ACH distributions and if applicable, systematic ACH distributions. Note: Do not complete this section if you have elected to remove all authorizations.

B. Wire Bank of Record

Complete this section to establish or replace wire bank of record to be used for wire distributions. Note: Do not complete this section if you have elected to remove all authorizations.

Section 6: Signature

It is important for you to read and understand the terms and conditions found in Sections 3, 5, and 6 before you sign. After reading them, sign and date the form. Note: For custodial and legal accounts, the custodian, guardian, or conservator must sign.

Return your completed form as instructed by your Investment Advisor or your client representative. Questions regarding this form should be directed to your Investment Advisor.
